

The National Investment Banking Competition & Conference (NIBC) brings together students in an annual Case Competition which offers Undergraduate and Graduate students from top universities the opportunity to compete for international recognition and develop skills essential to a successful career in investment banking.

